

'Heart Song'

with June Watts

A long Easter weekend of deep dancing, and spring renewal.

Michaelgarth near Monmouth
Friday 6 - Monday 9 April 2012

Extending the weekend means we are able to journey more deeply into the Dance, into the truth of the heart and the desires of the Soul.

Easter is magical at Michaelgarth - the self-catering retreat house of Ty Mawr convent. The earth here breathes out nature's re-birth in such beauty and purity it nourishes the senses and gives joy to the soul.

PLACE: -

Michaelgarth, Ty Mawr Convent, Trellech, Nr. Monmouth. It is set in beautiful country, two miles from the village of Trellech, (Tri-lech - three stones) with its standing stones aligned with the Winter Solstice sunset.

Leaving Monmouth on A40 towards Abergavenny turn left on to B4293 towards Chepstow. Look out for left turn to Penalt, ignore first two, take the one that immediately branches right to Whitebrook, left to Penalt. Take the left fork and you will soon come to Ty Mawr on your right. Drive past this entrance to the next gates on the right which is Michaelgarth.

ACCOMODATION: -

Fully residential. Accomodation is in single and twin-bedded rooms.

FOOD: -

Delicious home-cooked organic vegetatian food. Please indicate any special dietary needs when booking.

TIME: -

The weekend begins with supper at 6 pm on Friday 6th April, and the circle forms at 7.30pm. You will be welcome any time after 4.00pm. It ends after lunch on Monday 9th April.
